THE DORF'S BLACK-DRAUGHT FOR CONSTIPATION
Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels and nothing less than vital stagnation or death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. The Dorf's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics. Be sure that you get the original The Dorf's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.
Morgan, Ark., May 25, 1901.
I cannot recommend The Dorf's Black-Draught too highly. I keep it in my house all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never gave my children any other laxative. I think I could never be able to work without it on account of being troubled with constipation. Your medicine is all that keeps me up.

People Will Talk.

Yes, people will talk, The saying is true— They talk about me, And they talk about you.

If we go to the opera, Some one will say We "should go to church And learn how to pray."

If we go to church And offer up prayers, They say we are hypocrites And putting on airs.

If we are rich, They call us a thief, Scoff at our sorrows, And laugh at our grief.

If we are poor, They say that we shirk, Were always lazy And never would work.

They talk of our prospects, They talk of our past, And if we are happy, They say it can't last.

They talk of our loved ones, They talk of our foes, They talk of our follies, They talk of our woes.

They talk of our joys, They talk of our fears, They talk of our smiles, They talk of our tears.

They talk if we're single, And they talk if we wed, They talk of us living, And will talk of us dead.

Tho' we live like an angel, With circumspect walk, Our efforts are useless— For people will talk.—Ex.

A Forcible Reminder.

The other day a colored teamster, driving along the Boonesboro pike with an empty hay wagon, pulled to one side near Forest Grove church and stopped to think. He had forgotten something and was cudgeling his brain quite seriously, when a well-known citizen of Winchester came along.

"Howdy do boss; howdy do," said the teamster. "I's mighty glad to see yer, 'deed I is, kase I is in er heap er trouble. Mr. Gaines, he done sent me down here ter git er load er hay an' I done clean forgot de man's name wat's got de hay. Now boss, you knows all dese people 'roun heah, sopenyou call over de names an' mebbe bit'll kinder 'fresh my mem'ry."

"Well, said the citizen, "was it Bush?"

"No sah."

"Elkin?"

"No sah."

"Lisle?"

"No sah."

"Quisenberry?"

"No sah." Didn't soun' nuthin' like nun er dem. Soun'ed mo' like sump'n minded me er Crismus, an' de fofe er July, an' t'logs like dat."

"Holliday?"

"Dat's de man! Dat's de man!" shouted the darkey, throwing up both hands. "Mr. Lewis Holliday! Much erbleeged, boss! Git up, Lize. Dat's de man!" and on he went for the hay. —Winchester Sun-Sentinel.

Tendency of the Times.

The tendency of medical science is to ward preventive measures. The best thought of the world is being given to the subject. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of influenza (grip), and it has been observed that this remedy counteracts any tendency of these diseases toward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the great prevalence of colds and grip in recent years, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. Pneumonia often results from a slight cold when no danger is apprehended until it is suddenly discovered that there is fever and difficulty in breathing and pains in the chest, then it is announced that the patient has pneumonia. Be on the safe side and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the cold is contracted. It always cures. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

H. C. Robertson, the star alibi witness for Jim Howard, has apparently gone for good. He was under bond of $500 on the charge of false swearing in the Franklin circuit court. This bond was forfeited at the term last fall, and Robertson's bondsman, N. I. McDaniel, a Frankfort business man, has paid over that amount.
